The Merchant

of Venice Beach

A notorious arms dealer in deep debt returns to Venice Beach to work at his father's surf shop. Determined to revive the store's glory days, he incorporates his ruthless merchant tactics to the laid back shore's of southern California

Anatoly "Toly" Molotov is a ruthless businessman that has made his fortune selling weapons to the highest bidder. An economic downfall and heavy debt has forced Toly to return to his father's store in Venice Beach.

He quickly finds his way back to the top, this time as a small time local vendor, and sadly learns that life on the boardwalk will never be like the life he used to lead.

However, with his "arms dealer" mentality, Toly does everything he can to eliminate the competition, sell his products to the tourists, and avoid Special Agent Pierre Duchamp, a failing Interpol agent who refuses to believe Toly has gone legit. And he gets to do all this while working on his tan!

CHAD AND BRAD

For these two Californians, life is about two things – surfing and smoking weed. Anything else is considered a waste of their infinite free time.

AGENT PIERRE DUCHAMP

Following the footsteps of Inspector Clouseau, Agent Duchamp, probably the worst secret agent in history, lives with one purpose only, and that is to nail Anatoly Molotov.

TOLY

A man of few words. If looks could kill, he would be guilty of multiple murders. His threatening appearance, however, is only a cover for his big heart and sensitive nature.

PINYA

The meanest 92 year old around with nothing nice to say about anything. He walks around with a cane and eye patch, a cross between Captain Hook and Grandpa Simpson.

BELLA

An incredibly witty and sarcastic 9 year old Hindu-American girl that hangs around the boardwalk because her father owns a shop next to Vladimir's store.

FORTY TWO

An AI missile launch control system prototype that is now Toly's pet. 42 is a robot with the constant cheerful mood of a puppy and the intelligence of a supercomputer.

THE ROYAL VISIT

Kim Kardashian and Kanye West are coming to the beach so Toly sends 'Forty Two' to sabotage the convoy and make the couple stop in front of his store. The plan backfires and he ends up with Jon Lovitz, who is immediately attacked by Penya. The store gets publicly alright, but not the kind they were seeking.

SURF AND TURF

A big surfing contest is about to take place at Venice Beach and Toly wants to sponsor the new rising star, Crash Warshawski, only to discover that he is about to sign with a big sporting goods chain. Toly plans on blowing up the contest but Bella helps him make the store look like a new fresh boutique label.

THE OLD COUNTRY

One of Toly's former clients, an African prince, arrives looking for Toly's help. He wants to meet someone famous and heard Toly is "the man" in LA. Toly knows better than to refuse and decides to play host. Agent Duchamp takes surveillance photos and leads an embarrassingly fumbled Interpol mission.
